Allan Vogel, tonight's guest oboist, is one of America's leading wind soloists and chamber musicians. Principal oboist of the Los Angeles Chamber Orchestra, Allan has appeared as soloist with orchestras throughout the country and has been featured at the Marlboro, Santa Fe, Aspen, and Mostly Mozart festivals. In addition, Mr. Vogel has been a guest with the Berlin Philharmonic and performed in Europe, Japan, and South America. His extensive discography includes recordings for RCA, Angel, and Delos with such artists as Peter Serkin and Helmuth Rilling. Allan has taught at CalArts since 1970. He received his Doctorate in Performance from Yale University.

Angie Whitney, tonight's guest vocalist, is making her second appearance with the Caltech Jazz Bands. A native Californian, she began her career in music at the age of four, singing duets with her twin sister at local affairs and her father's church. She toured with the Spinners for three years, appearing in this country, Europe, Japan, and Canada. She has also appeared on numerous television specials, such as Midnight Special, Top of Pops, Soundstage, and America's Music. Angie has appeared in major concert centers around the globe, and her versatile singing abilities and elegant style place her in demand for numerous record, commercial, and concert engagements, whether it be jazz, pop, or blues.

Paul Asimow, who is making his third conducting appearance with the Caltech-Occidental Wind Ensemble, is a graduate student in geology. Paul was born in Los Angeles, where he attended Harvard School. He did his undergraduate work in geology at Harvard University, where he was director of the school's marching ensemble, the Harvard University Band.

Director of Instrumental Music at Caltech, William Bing has been at Caltech since the early 70's. He studied conducting with Dan Lewis (USC) and Elizabeth Green (U. of Michigan). As a trumpet player, Bill has played trumpet and recorded with many artists, from Jack Benny to the Los Angeles Chamber Orchestra. He recently published a brass method book, and is a trumpet instructor on the faculty at Cal State Northridge and Cal State Los Angeles.

The Caltech - Occidental Wind Ensemble and Caltech Jazz Bands rehearse one night a week and perform four to five concerts a year. That the ensembles are able to perform so much different music with so few rehearsals is a testament to the high level of the members' abilities. For example, most of tonight's music was prepared in only ten rehearsals. Guest artists who have appeared with our groups include Tony Plog, Allen Vizzutti, Bill Watrous, Steve Houghton, Jim Self, David Shiffrin, Diane Chassman, James Rötter, Eddie Daniels, and Rick Todd. Guest conductors have included William Schaefer, Joel Leach, John Swain, Richard Meyer, David Whitwell, Allen Gross, and William Hill.

The Gertrude and Huldric Richards Memorial Fund

This fund was established by Caltech Alumnus and wind ensemble saxophonist Ray Richards in memory of his parents. It provides private lessons and coaching for members of the instrumental ensembles.

This year's recipients

Marc Hillmyer (guitar)
Ari Kaplin (drums)
Missy Richmond (bassoon)
Aaron Hawkins (violin)
Rachel Schartz (violin)
